

Online Wires

Wire transfer is a method of electronically transferring funds from one person or institution to another. By taking advantage of our online wire service, you can send wires through your online banking account at a reduced wire transfer fee. Thus, you can send domestic and/or international wires conveniently from your desktop, eliminating the need to go into one of our branches.

Contact Us

For more information about Bank of Utah's business banking solutions, contact a Relationship Manager.

Contact A Relationship Manager

Get the latest information from our website. Scan the QR Code to go directly to this page.