

Fraud Awareness

Fraud is prevalent in today's world. Bank of Utah works continuously to safeguard your finances and your personal information, but we need you to partner with us to prevent and fight fraud. Arm yourself with knowledge and good security habits to protect your money and your identity, both on and offline.

Resource Library

Online Security

Online Security

- Online Best Practices
- Creating Strong and Unique Passwords
- Kids Online Safety

Fraud Prevention

Fraud Prevention

- Avoid Social Engineering Attacks
- How Hackers Use Your Stolen Credentials
- Social Media Scams

Business Protection

Business Protection

- Lower Your Risk of Business Fraud
- Thwarting a Phishing Attack
- Email Scams

Have Questions or Need to Report Fraud?

Contact Us

Additional Resources

- Free Access to Your Credit Report Each Year
- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- Federal Trade Commission
- U.S. Cybersecurity & Infrastructure Security Agency

Fraud Articles

[Scams, Schemes & What Do Aliens
Have to Do With It?](#)

[Look Out for Gift Card
Scams](#)

Don't Become a Money Mule

[Debunk Identity Fraud
Myths](#)

□ Get the latest information from our website. Scan the QR Code to go directly to this page.