

Careers in Branch Banking

Technology continually changes the way people interact with their finances, but one thing stays the same: Customers still seek out human connections and personal support as they strive to reach their financial goals. They're looking for just the right mix of digital services, innovative products and people who will help them thrive.

Our top-notch Branch Banking teams deliver with customer service representatives (CSRs), customer service managers (CSMs) and branch managers who:

- Listen and provide a warm environment for everyone.
- Meet customers' immediate needs and anticipate future needs.
- Be a resource on the Bank's products and services to help customers achieve their financial goals.
- Educate customers on how to use the Bank's digital tools and resources.
- And above all, become people our customers can count on.

Join our team and see great value in what you do, enjoy opportunities to grow and give back, and feel valued by your colleagues and senior managers.
