

Children's I Save

My Utah is riding the train with my kids and ensuring their financial future is on the right track.

When it comes to teaching children to manage money, the earlier the better. The Children's I Save account at Bank of Utah is a great way to help kids under 18 develop meaningful financial habits and save for the future.

Involve them in setting goals, calculating interest and using technology to track their savings, without worrying about monthly balance requirements.

This account can only be opened in our branches. A parent or legal guardian is required as an account co-owner.

Get started by visiting one of our Bank of Utah locations.
