

eStatement Promise

Have you ever needed quick access to an account statement? Perhaps you needed to verify a payment, compare your direct deposits with your W-2, or collect documents for an audit. Account statements are easy to take for granted, but when you need them, you most often need them right away. With Bank of Utah's eStatement Promise, we guarantee that your account statements will be available to you electronically, and free, for seven years, even if you've closed your account.

That's peace of mind.

5 Benefits of Our eStatement Promise

1. Access, with the ability to keep your account statements on file electronically for seven years and request electronic copies, with no associated fees (even if you close your account)
2. Security, with the knowledge that you can avoid mail fraud and theft
3. Instant notifications, with email reminders that your account statements are ready to view
4. Clutter-free, environmentally friendly organization, with no need for paper filing and/or shredding
5. Choice, with the ability to download and print statements if you'd prefer

How Do I Sign Up for eStatements?

Some Bank of Utah accounts require you to access your statements electronically, for example, the Easy Checking and I Save accounts. Other types of accounts, like our Evergreen account or a CD, give you the option to choose paper or eStatements.

If you currently receive paper statements in the mail, and you want to switch to eStatements:

1. Log in to online banking or open your mobile app.
2. Go to the Services tab, or in the mobile app, hit Menu and then go to Services.
3. Click on eStatements.
4. Click on Delivery Preferences.
5. Update your selection and hit save.
